Penn State York Soccer Camp

for ages 8-13
July 22-26, 2013

The Complete Soccer Camp

Penn State York Soccer Camp offers a total athletic experience designed to help players improve their soccer skills. Under the guidance of outstanding coaches and players as well as other athletic experts, camp participants are led through a complete soccer program including stretching and conditioning, drills, position analysis, rules of the game, and team play. Lectures, demonstrations, films, and instructional video tapes augment physical activities. Players are grouped according to age and ability level during the first camp session. Campers may bring their own ball if it is labeled with their name.

Who Should Attend

The camp is designed for both male and female soccer players of all ability levels, ages 8 through 13. Players should arrive at camp each day dressed to play soccer. Bring indoor footwear in case of rain.

Camp Soccer Ball and Shirt

All campers will receive a camp soccer ball and T-shirt.

Time and Location

The camp will be conducted on July 22-26 from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. each day. The first morning's session will meet in Penn State York's gymnasium. Most camp activity thereafter will be conducted on the soccer fields adjacent to the campus.

Fee

The fee is $195 for the first family member; each additional family member is $175. Camp includes instruction, coaching, camp ball, camp shirt, and lunch each day. Fee may be paid by check or money order (payable to Penn State York), or by VISA or MasterCard.

The Christopher C. Miller Sportsmanship Awards

The Christopher C. Miller Sportsmanship Awards were established to honor a true sportsman of the game of soccer who played the game with passion. In the 375 to 450 games Christopher played, he never received a red or yellow card. Three awards will be given at the conclusion of camp in memory of Christopher C. Miller (1985-2001)
